Commenting on the Q1FY26 results, Mr. Vikas Oberoi, Chairman and Managing Director, Oberoi Realty said, "The Indian economy continues to display remarkable resilience and sustainable growth despite a challenging global economic and geopolitical landscape. With strong macroeconomic fundamentals, a growing aspirational population, robust domestic demand, and a stable external position, India is placed favourably for growth amongst the major global economies.

Demand for luxury homes remains strong, fuelled by rising aspirations and a growing desire for an enhanced lifestyle. We are pleased to report another healthy quarter, driven by successful tower launch at Elysian, Oberoi Garden City Goregaon. At Oberoi Realty, we remain focused on creating developments that foster vibrant communities — through thoughtfully designed homes, premium retail, world-class hotels, and sustainable living experiences.

We have started our preparations towards new project launches over the balance part of the year and are also continuing to pursue attractive land acquisitions which will deliver lasting value for all our stakeholders."
